

The Northwood String Orchestra is one of Southampton's longest running ensembles with its origins going back to entertaining injured WW1 servicemen at Netley Hospital in the early '20s. 'Northwood' was the house on The Avenue where the players met regularly on the lawns. We now meet:

Mondays 7.30—9.30pm at the Friends Meeting House

New players welcome, please contact us through:

Malcolm Porter studied at the Guildhall School and went on to play in the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra. After many years of teaching class music at secondary and sixth form level, Malcolm is now mainly focussed on the more peaceful art of viola making.

Our next concert: 3pm on 23rd June 2018 at St Alban's Church, Swaythling

We are proud to maintain a long tradition of supporting charities at each of our concerts.

Today we remember Jane Hill who played the cello with us for over 30 years.

We are delighted to be joined by Flautissimo:

Flautissimo is a friendly and enthusiastic group of all ages (school pupils, university students, local teachers and amateur adult musicians) drawn from all over Hampshire that meets weekly on Friday evenings during term time to rehearse.

Our repertoire ranges from Baroque to 21st Century, and includes arrangements of well known pieces as well as compositions specifically for flute ensemble. The orchestra has its own alto, bass and contrabass flutes, so there is an opportunity to play these relatively unusual instruments. We perform concerts in a variety of settings, from the Southampton Art Gallery as part of Southampton's Music in the City, Winchester Cathedral's Christmas Market, and Romsey bandstand, along with concerts with other groups in Hampshire. Our Musical Director is Joanna Price who was a playing member of Flautissimo before taking up the baton.

Please get in touch if you would like to join Flautissimo (Grade 5+) or Piccolissimo, our flute choir for less experienced flautists and anyone whose flute playing is a little rusty.

Kath Roberts Kath has recently graduated from the University of Southampton with First-class Honours in music, gaining awards for 'Best performer in a music society', and the Peter Evans prize for 'Outstanding musical performance'. She began learning violin at the age of 6, and is currently studying privately with Caroline Balding. Kath has performed with a variety of musicians, including Daniel Herskedal, Ivo Neame, David Owen Norris and Pei-Jee Ng. She is looking forward to studying at the Royal Academy of Music in September 2018 for her MA in Performance. Currently employed by the Southampton Music Services and Hub, she teaches violin, viola, recorder, and keyboard skills, as well as running 'Introduction to Music' classes for children aged 3-5 at Questors Young Musicians Club in London.
